

Dear (Donor name),

The story is dramatic.

The hero courageous and funny.

He's also an eight-year-old walking miracle...well, Jerry is walking today.

The night he had to "crawl like an army man" to his parents' bedroom, walking wasn't an option. And very soon, breathing on his own wouldn't be either...

Please let Jerry tell you his own story here:

As a friend of All Children's Hospital you're part of the miracle story it tells, so I hope you'll set down whatever you're doing and watch it now.

The video is seven minutes long, but miracles don't always happen quickly. And, for the young patients at All Children's Hospital, they don't happen without friends like you.

Thank you, (Donor name)!

P.S. (Donor name), please share Jerry's story with your friends and family, even post it on your Facebook page. Show it to everyone who believes miracles happen when we work together for all children.
